

Judy Chambers, Managing Director, PCA
New York, NY

Ms. Judy Chambers joined PCA in 2007 as a Managing Director. Previously, Ms. Chambers was a Principal at Caswell Capital Partners, a merchant bank formed to serve the needs of small and middle market media and entertainment companies. She focused on providing strategic and financial advisory services to clients as well as raising debt and equity financings for strategic investments.

Prior to joining Caswell Capital Partners, Ms. Chambers was a Vice President in Investment Banking at Lehman Brothers where she worked in the Leveraged Finance Group. She has extensive experience in analyzing capital structures and structuring complex transactions. At Lehman Brothers, Ms. Chambers originated and executed approximately $9 billion in high yield bonds, leveraged loans and bridge financings related to mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations and debt restructurings. Ms. Chambers' completed transactions span various industries including media, financial institutions, natural resources, industrial and consumer services. Prior to joining Lehman Brothers, Ms. Chambers was an Assistant Vice President in the Global Finance Group at NationsBank where she worked on foreign exchange and change implementation projects.

Ms. Chambers is a member and international delegate of the Financial Women's Association of New York. She is the chairperson of the Young Professionals Advisory Group of A Better Chance and also serves on the Benefit Committee of A Better Chance and Career Gear. Ms. Chambers is the President of the Tri-State Kellogg Black Alumni Association and a member of the Duke University Metropolitan Alumni Association of New York. Ms. Chambers is also a member of the Minority Media and Telecommunications Council.

Ms. Chambers holds a Bachelor of Arts from Duke University and a Masters of Business Administration from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.