

Executive Recruitment RFP Questions & Answers

Q1 – Will all firms be given the chance for an interview?

A1 – Section 4.6 (page 3) – Finalists and Interviews: “LAFPP reserves the right to interview only a short list of Proposers or to short list proposals without conducting interviews. If a short list is used, it will be based on the evaluation criteria as identified below. If LAFPP elects to establish a short list among the Proposers, LAFPP reserves the right for the evaluation committee to determine the number of short-listed Proposers during the evaluation process.”

Q2 – How many firms will be selected to be interviewed?

A2 – Section 4.6 (page 3) – Finalists and Interviews: “LAFPP reserves the right to interview only a short list of Proposers or to short list proposals without conducting interviews. If a short list is used, it will be based on the evaluation criteria as identified below. If LAFPP elects to establish a short list among the Proposers, LAFPP reserves the right for the evaluation committee to determine the number of short-listed Proposers during the evaluation process.”

Answers to any additional questions received will be posted no earlier than

Monday, June 8, 2020, at 3:00 p.m.