

Renee Stadel, Deputy City Attorney

Deputy City Attorney Renee Stadel is the head of the Ethics, Elections and Governance team of the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office where she has worked since 2001. The Ethics, Election and Governance team provides advice to all City officials on ethics, conflict of interest, use of public funds, and Charter governance issues, and serves as General Counsel to the City Ethics Commission and City Clerk on elections issues. Prior to joining the City Attorney's office, Renee worked at the Los Angeles City Ethics Commission, Rhode Island Ethics Commission, and the Illinois EPA. Renee received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Illinois and a Juris Doctor from The Ohio State University in 1989.