

Robyn L. Wilder, CEBS

Robyn L. Wilder joined Los Angeles Fire & Police Pensions (LAFPP) in July 2001, as the Communications & Special Projects Manager. She directs the Pre-Retirement Education program and the new recruit orientation presentations. She is responsible for all communication materials including Web site content, Summary Plan Descriptions, annual reports, newsletters and brochures. She is also responsible for actuarial studies, legislative analysis and other special projects.

With over 20 years of experience with the City of Los Angeles, Robyn began her career at the Water & Power Employees' Retirement Plan where she served as the Membership & Contributions Manager, Disability & Death Benefits Manager, Assistant Investment Officer, Administrative Services Manager, and as the Interim Retirement Plan Manager.

Ms. Wilder received her B.A. in Economics and International Relations from Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts in 1986. She received the Certified Employee Benefits Specialist (CEBS) designation from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania and the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans (IFEBP) in December 2005. She completed the "Pension Funds and Money Management" program at The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, as well as the IFEBP's "Essentials of Public Sector Benefits Administration" program.